

Alan Sheers Photography

I've been interested in photography for over 30 years, and started developing my own black and white images whilst still at school.

I joined Badby Photo Club in 2008 after buying my first Digital SLR and this re-ignited my love of photography.

I joined Banbury Camera Club in 2015, and I enjoy the challenge and camaraderie of the club immensely.

My current favourite inspirations are Lake District landscapes and our four wonderful dogs (sometimes at the same time)!

I have had several of my images published in magazines and newspapers, including the front cover of the Daily Telegraph Travel Supplement, Practical Photography, Digital Photo, Four Shires, Lakes and Cumbria Today (a tourist magazine) and, most recently, on the front cover of Country Smallholding.

I hope you enjoy the photos, as much as I did taking them.
